Junior School Drama, Core French, Games and Grade 8 Form Teacher

Full-Time, March 27, 2023-December 22, 2023

Ashbury College is a leading not-for-profit independent day and boarding school for students in Grades 4 to 12 located in Canada's capital and the traditional, unceded territory of the Anishinàbe Algonquin Nation. We serve a diverse community of over 60 nationalities from around the National Capital Region, the diplomatic community and international and domestic boarding students.

Our mission is to inspire students in a dynamic learning environment as intellectually curious, compassionate and responsible global citizens. Our strategic direction is centered on the highest standards in teaching and learning; whole student development; access and inclusion in our pluralistic community; community engagement; and resource stewardship for long term-sustainability. We achieve these through a community of employees, volunteers, and students who cultivate and celebrate diversity and inclusion.

We strongly encourage applications from all qualified individuals who are members of groups with historical and/or current barriers to equity. This supports our mission, makes our community stronger, and adds to our culture.

Based in central Ottawa, Ashbury College's Junior School is currently seeking a Junior School Teacher, responsible for Grade 8 Form, Grade 8 Core French, Grade 4 to 8 Drama, Grade 7 and 8 Art Dramatique, Games 6, Girls' Fitness Club, Drama Club, supervision duties and school trips.

As the successful candidate, you have a history of school and community involvement, bringing enthusiasm and energy to the classroom, thriving in a busy learning community, working collaboratively with colleagues, and leading co-curricular activities. Your teaching practice includes current learning theories, creative use of technology, and imaginative course design and delivery.

Your education, experience and qualifications include:

- Member in good standing with the Ontario College of Teachers.
- B.A. or M.A. in Drama and French Second Language Teaching.
- Fluency in oral and written French.
- Minimum 5 years' experience teaching Grades 4 to 8.
- Evidence of teaching that has been enhanced by technology.
- Highly organized, with excellent attention to detail.
- International Bacalaureate experience is an asset.

All students and staff must follow Ashbury College's COVID-19 safety protocols when on campus.

Ashbury College provides a competitive compensation and benefits package, including participation in the Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan. And, if you are not familiar with our modern facilities, international student body, academic excellence, wealth of co-curricular activities, or school values and culture, please visit our website at ashbury.ca.

This appointment, which covers a leave, is effective starting March 27, 2023, and ends December 22, 2023.

If you are interested in joining our Junior School team and playing an integral role in delivering exemplary teaching practices, please forward your resume and cover letter to hr@ashbury.ca and include "Junior School Drama and French" in the subject line. The deadline for applications is Monday, January 9, 2023, however, apply without delay as we will review applications as they are received, and may bring the search process to a close early if an outstanding applicant is identified. Only short-listed applicants will be contacted.

At Ashbury College, our mission is to develop students as responsible global citizens.

Should you have any questions about this position, please email hr@ashbury.ca

If we contact you about an employment opportunity and you require an accommodation, we will work with you to meet your needs.
